

VHS Technology Students are Winners at Ball State University Technology Competition

Valparaiso High School Technology Students competed on October 19, 2004 at the Ball State Competitive Events Day in Muncie, IN. The Department of Industry and Technology sponsored the competition and judging was done by College Professors in the IT Department. Valparaiso High School students competed in six events and won championship honors in three of them. A total of 12 schools from Indiana competed in the event.

The winners of the Desktop Publishing Competition were Nick Pauca and Lauren Mialkowski.

The winners in the Packaging Design Competition were Anthony Earhart and Liz Schroeder.

Winners of the Manufacturing Systems Design Competition were Emily Fournier, Kevin Yu and Joe Sirokie

Other members of the Technology Team were Brad Horn, Erin Knauff, Elliot Hartsough, Chris Cunningham, Tony Campos and Jim Wright.
Technology teacher Gary Gray coaches the Technology Team.